Topic of chapter led Mischa Mokwa trail project ensues with input from many members of the LEC.

(Details for possible project: April 10-12, 17-19, Or May 1-3. Possible group transportation to the work site. Food and lodging provided for. Get there on Friday and work Sunday)

Motion to table the topic until a later date started by Sebastian, seconded by Mitchell, All vote in favor.

Discussion of Indian Winter begins

Brainstormed ideas thoughts:

- Brotherhood Bash, Game with cracker barrel, Possibly CTF
- Set up less tables to promote mingling
- Tomahawk throwing and archery
- Football Game
- Clay shooting
- Todd mandates that physical games shouldn't be played in extreme cold and ice
- Frozen wet t-shirt contest
- Competitive events
- Encourage people to mingle with people they don't know
- Don't allow people to sit inside all day
- Saturday night fellowship bonfire, meet and greet thing

- Poll to procure feedback on scheduled events
- Opening bonfire show, similar to what was done at fall fellowship
- Each chapter being responsible to bring a component of the meal

Training that is to be done: Elangomat, Drum team, ceremonies, and symbolism.

System to keep the trainings as appealing as possible discussed, with common themes of reducing training length, having rotations, and having fun activities in between.

Due to time constraints, topic will be further discussed on various forms of media and LEC will proceed with other matters.

Nathan offers the idea of using chapter wide telephone trees to help increase attendance at functions on chapter and lodge levels.

Drum team and ceremonies team to independently figure out their practice schedule.

LEC communication information:

- Everyone must read the BSA social media guidelines and agree to them in the comments section on Facebook.
- The Kawida Emails will be transferred shortly to new LEC members, respond to the emails.
- Lodge master guidelines coming soon via email, respond to the links

Next LEC will be at Indian Winter

Kawida Leadership Summit on February 21st at the scout office

Chapters encouraged to strive for gold level Journey to Excellence

The LEC meeting closes with Todd's Lodge Adviser's Minute (Which was impressively a minute long) in which he stressed the importance of having fun, afterwards the OA song is sung, and the members end by doing the Kawida chant loud enough to shake the building.
