From the 2013 Chief

by Nick Oliver

As your 2013 Kawida Lodge Chief, my goals for this upcoming year are.....

First, to continue the great steps we have taken to ensure our chapter program will be successful as it was this past year. Second, to meet and work with all OA Troop Representatives to see what they or their troop needs to help build the OA program in their troop. Third, as Arrowmen, it is our duty to be at Cub Scout events to help guide the Cub Scouts into Boy Scouts with great memories and a sense of curiosity. Fourth, I love our council camp, so it is my fellow officers' and my duty to extend great service to our beautiful Camp McKee. The benches in the camp arena WILL be redone. Buildings will continue to be painted. I plan to be at any council work day which we can attend ready to serve and ready to represent the lodge in a great way.

Thanks so much for all the support you give to Kawida lodge, from paying your dues to lending a helping hand. I appreciate all of you, and thanks for showing the true meaning of Scouting. I am honored and excited to be your 2013 Lodge Chief, and I hope to see you at events this year rocking that Kawida swag!

Thank you and God bless!

Chiefly Speaking

by Jake Redenbaugh

Brothers,

As this year draws to a close, I would like to express the gratitude I have for the opportunity to serve as your Lodge Chief this past year. While we've gained momentum in a positive direction improving this lodge, much work is left to be done. I can assure you that Nick Oliver will without a doubt be one of the best lodge chiefs that the Southern Region has ever produced. The 2013 team consists of an outstanding group of youth leaders, and I promise you that Kawida will be in good hands.

On a different note (in case you haven't heard yet), Kawida Lodge will likely be hosting the 2014 SR-6 Conclave! This huge event will require a lot of cheerful service, and the 2013 team will be looking for any help they can get to make sure this event goes off without a hitch, so volunteer today at www.kawida.org/committees/service.

I hope to see you all around this upcoming year as I find myself searching for other ways to serve cheerfully. Until then, remember always to keep the party rocking!

From the Desk of the Secretary

by Nathan Vick

My Brothers,

From Conclave to the National Order of the Arrow Conference (NOAC), it's been a great year! As Lodge Secretary, it has been my honor and privilege to be in the midst of it all. We won sectional and national awards, held many awesome events, and most importantly had a great time. If you came out to any of this year's events, you know what I mean. Our first-ever Indian Winter, "Race to the Arrow" at Spring Fellowship, our first-in-a-while lodge Conclave theme (Ninjas!), all the Ordeals, NOAC, an amazing Fall Fellowship, a Lodge Leadership Development training which I had the privilege of leading, and now an awesome Winter Banquet. 2012 has been a great year for our lodge!

Our Lodge Publications have reflected this level of extraordinary awesomeness. As I mentioned before, this year we won sectional and national awards for our 2011 Thunderbird, Planbook, and Lodge Website. Earning these awards is so exciting for me because it means we're doing something right.

One of the ways we have tried to promote events this year is through email announcements and Facebook events; since we have exceeded attendance estimates for events this year, it seems that these promotions have worked! Overall, this has been a great and successful year in Kawida Publications.

I am honored to have been your 2012 Lodge Secretary and thank you from my heart for all the help and support you have given me. I hope that you will continue giving that same level of support to Jacob Roberts, the 2013 Secretary. In 2013, I will serve as your Vice Chief of Brotherhood and will do my best in that position as well. Thank you all, and get ready to have another awesome year in 2013!!

Lodge Leadership Development Recap

by Nathan Vick

Lodge Leadership Development 2012 was one of the most awesome trainings Kawida has ever held! Holding it over a weekend proved to be excellent and provided a great way to have the necessary sessions while allowing plenty of time for activities. From the games we played to the fun and educational training sessions, LLD was a terrific event!

Our sessions focused on the things that would be most beneficial to our lodge and chapters. With names such as "Awesome Chapter Meetings," "Inductions: Sequence, Principles," and "Developing Your Youth Officer Team," sessions taught those in attendance how to run a chapter or lodge. Not only did LLD teach lodge and chapter leaders how to more effectively carry out their responsibilities, it also introduced some new concepts and programs, such as the "Nimat Program" which helps with Brotherhood conversion. The sessions taught at LLD were designed to take participants to the next level of understanding and leadership; everyone learned something.

Just because we had an awesome LLD this year doesn't mean we have it all, however. Next year we are planning to make it even more awesome! Instead of being at Stamler Dining Hall, we're going to be at Karrick Retreat Lodge. Nothing has been finalized yet, but the climbing tower is right next to Karrick and the COPE course is not far away. We could do climbing, rappelling, COPE, shooting, and more – the sky's the limit. Of course, we'll have sessions, but they will be interactive and very fun – not boring at all! If you want to be a part of helping plan and run this event, send me an email at training@kawida.org and I'll help you join the Training Committee and get on board with planning LLD. We do many other things besides LLD, such as helping with Indian Winter and elangomat training at Spring Fellowship; I'd love for you to be a part of the committee!

Yours in Cheerful Service,

Nathan Vick

Winter Banquet Recap

by Barry Johnson

This Winter Banquet was a great event! We had barbecue for dinner, and watched a "Year In Review" video about what our lodge has done in 2012. The keynote address was given by David Joyner, our 2012 Southern Region Chief. There were many awards given out, including the recognition of the 2013 Vigil Honor Class, and you can find the complete list of recipients on www.kawida.org. Winter Banquet marked the end of this year's term of office for lodge officers and the beginning of our new officers' term in the coming year. It was also announced that in 2014 Kawida will be likely be hosting the Section SR-6 Conclave! There is much work to be done, but we will do it and have fun with it.

It was great to be your 2012 Vice Chief of Brotherhood. Thank you for all the support you have given me over the course of the year. I don't know about you, but in 2013 I'm "Ready to Get Sweaty"!!!

Yours in Brotherhood,

Barry Johnson

Indian Winter Promotion

by Nathan Vick

Held for the first time ever in 2012, Indian Winter was such a success that we're doing it again in 2013. What is Indian Winter, you ask? Why should I go? Read on...

Indian Winter is the ultimate Kawida Lodge ceremonies and American Indian lore training event. Held in 2013 on January 18-20, Indian Winter is a lodge event like no other you've ever seen! In-depth discussions about ceremonies and the ceremony principles, tomahawk throwing, drumming, Native American crafts, and more – Indian Winter has it all! Keeneland Lodge at Camp McKee provides the perfect setting for this event.

This year, there will be more trainings happening at the same time, so you can pick and choose which ones you want to attend. We'll have two distinct "tracks" of trainings to choose from: ceremonies/inductions and American Indian events. You can choose all your trainings from one track or from a combination of both – whatever you want! Indian Winter is not a high-powered event like Fall Fellowship, but is much more laid-back. There will be plenty of opportunities to sit back and do cool Native American crafts or to fellowship with your brothers.

Even though we're including lots of new things, we won't omit the activities that are fast becoming Indian Winter traditions. The Legacy Walk and Indian Winter ceremony, for instance. They may be slightly modified from last year as we assess what went well and what we could improve, but they'll be there. The Tomahawk Throwing Competition, another classic, will also be included. Our goal for this year is to add new and exciting things while remaining true to the foundation laid by our first Indian Winter last year.

Indian Winter is such an awesome event that you'll want to sign up soon using the form included in this issue of the Thunderbird to reserve your spot. If you want to make any Native American crafts, you will need to pre-order them by submitting your registration and order before December 20. On January 18-20, 2013, get ready for an awesome weekend at Indian Winter!

I really hope that you can come to Kawida Lodge's second Indian Winter. It will be a blast!!

Nathan Vick

News from all the chapters in Kawida Lodge

Gikino Ballet

My Brothers in Service,

This will be the last time I shall be writing to you as Chapter Chief for Gikino Ballet Chapter. Next year will be a very different year for our chapter. We have a new Chapter Chief, Deven Gonzalez, and a new Chapter Adviser, Greg Watkins. Deven, with Greg's advice, will do a great job leading Gikino Ballet next year.

I would like to end by urging all you Arrowmen to get active in 2013. The Chapter will need you all's help to function and be what it has the potential to be. Also, with Conclave 2014, the Chapter and the Lodge will need your help to prepare and to show Section SR-6 how awesome Camp McKee, the Blue Grass Council, Kawida Lodge and, of course, the Gikino Ballet Chapter are.

Mischa Mokwa

As outgoing Chapter Vice Chief and incoming Chapter Chief, I am pleased to be able to make my mark on the Mischa Mokwa Chapter. Our efforts to increase membership in the chapter have paid off. By doubling our membership this past year we have turned our chapter completely around. After a year of hard work, I am proud to say that our chapter has earned the Gold level of Journey To Excellence!

With our elections, which were held in October, we welcomed T.J. Melton and Lee Frazier as our incoming Secretary and Vice-Chief, respectively. Having these strong young leaders by my side, I have the utmost confidence that the chapter will become stronger. With an upcoming meeting in January, T.J., Lee, and I have been planning some great activities. As some exciting new projects are on the horizon, we will be sure to keep everyone informed.

Tomahaken

The Tomahaken Chapter in 2012 has had a large presence in the lodge this year. We have made an effort to attend every event the lodge promoted. However, we are still not satisfied. This upcoming year is very promising for the Tomahaken Chapter.

On our to-do list is the organization of a ceremony team, multiple service projects, exclusive chapter events (movie night or some other fun shin-dig), and anything else that is thought up by our wonderful team of chapter officers! We will make even a larger impact in the lodge than we did this year and plan to always keep some sort of presence at the events.

Even with the presence we had this year, we still need to restore the spirit amongst our chapter. We have had many scheduling problems with some of our members, since some of the events conflict with their ever-so-crazy high school schedule. We will make it our main goal in 2013 to revive some of our Arrowmen's activity in the chapter and lodge, and have them make it something they love and want to do again.

I am so excited to see what this coming year will yield, and you can expect to see us at the lodge events in 2013!

Hey guys, it's Mitchell, your 2012 We-Ha-Li Chapter Chief! This has been a great year for Kawida Lodge and the We-Ha-Li Chapter. I have thoroughly enjoyed the support that each one of you has given to me and our chapter. I also thank you all for your service to the lodge. All of the Or-deals and Brotherhood Conversions this year went off smoothly, and Kawida Lodge has attained the Gold Level of Journey to Excellence! This is a great achievement, and all of you have worked hard to help the lodge get this award.

Though Matthew Brumbaugh will take over as the We-Ha-Li Chapter Chief for the 2013 year, you guys haven't seen the last of me! In 2013, I will be the Ceremonies Committee Chairman and will help the We-Ha-Li Chapter continue to be an active part of Kawida Lodge.

Kawida Lodge, Order of the Arrow

Indian Winter

January 18-20, 2013

Keeneland Lodge, Camp McKee

You feel like you have been walking for what seems like a lifetime. Your feet hurt, your hands hurt, and you have not eaten anything all day. All you can think about is getting some sleep. Continuing on with the fellow Scouts you've been working with all day, you walk even more. Drums resound in the distance, and a glimmer of hope resides within your heart.

Remember this point in your Ordeal? That point of anticipation; not knowing what was in store for you. Everything leading up to that instance was the result of the hard work from fellow youth working together as a lodge to bring forth your Ordeal. What happened after that was really special and helped pave a foundation in your Order of the Arrow legacy...

Ceremonies are a vital part of what the Order of the Arrow is. American Indian lore is a major ingredient to the effectiveness of the ceremony and is a key way the Order projects its vision and mission. Every youth member of Kawida Lodge is encouraged to be a part of its legacy by taking part in ceremonies.

INDIAN WINTER is an event being held annually by Kawida Lodge. All Arrowmen with an interest in learning more about the American Indian culture, Kawida Lodge, or the Order are of course welcomed. Participants will have the opportunity to delve deeper into the ceremony world of settings, props, symbolism, performing the ceremonies, the development of ceremonial attire, and understanding the ten induction principles.

Whether you've been in ceremonies since your induction, or have yet to make that step, Indian Winter will be an event that will bring you to places you didn't know you could go.

"Who among you now is ready? Who will go upon the journey? You must choose..."

Lodge Adviser's Minute

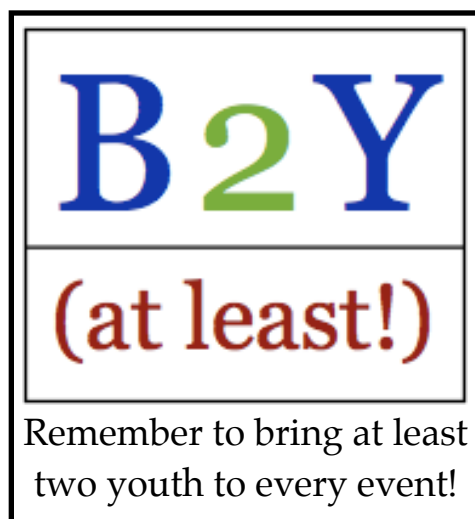

by Doug Vick

Greetings Arrowmen!

The seasons are changing, and so is the Order of the Arrow, especially Kawida Lodge. New youth leadership, a new Supreme Chief of the Fire, new adult nomination guidelines, Kawida likely hosting Conclave 2014 ... this has been a busy year! All of the 2012 lodge and chapter officers are awesome youth and have made this year what it was! The 2013 lodge and chapter officers are equally awesome, and I am looking forward to this upcoming year!

2013 will bring a new Supreme Chief of the Fire to Kawida. As these details emerge, we'll announce them in future Thunderbirds as well as on the lodge website. Effective January 1, troop nomination of adults occurs in basically a 3:1 ratio – to learn more, check out www.oa-bsa.org. And, it looks like Kawida will be hosting the Section SR-6 Conclave in 2014!! That will involve repairing and painting all the buildings and campsites at Camp McKee, fixing the camp road, improving foot trails, repairing the aging arena, finding vendors for food and supplies, and lots, lots more! Wonderful opportunities exist for youth to assume leadership and adults to mentor youth. Send us your contact info & interest area if you want to be a part of Conclave 2014!

And, while we await National's confirmation, congratulations go out to the hard-working, fun-loving officers and advisers of Kawida Lodge and all the Chapters for helping Kawida achieve the GOLD JOURNEY TO EXCELLENCE level for 2012!!!

Yours in Service,

Doug Vick

Lodge Adviser

If you haven't paid your 2013 dues, you will want to do so using the included dues form. Dues are only $15, and they include the Thunderbird mailed to your house (one per person unless you desire to save trees) and the right to attend section/national events and wear your lodge flap on your Scout uniform.
